

Danny Boy

But if he come, when all the flowers are dy-ing, and I am dead as dead I well may be, you'll come and find the place where I am ly-ing, and kneel and say an Ave there for me;